SEASONS OF PREPARATION: A PLANNING RETREAT

IS THIS RETREAT FOR ME?

If you help shape worship in your congregation in any way, the answer is yes!

SEPTEMBER 14-16
BEGINS AT 6 PM MONDAY
ENDS AT 2 PM WEDNESDAY

GILMONT CAMP &
CONFERENCE
CENTER, GILMER, TX

JOIN US FOR REFRESHMENT, COLLABORATION, AND
RENEWED ENERGY
FOR YOUR MINISTRY.

Whether you are a pastor, commissioned ruling elder, musician, worship leader, educator, liturgist, or creative planner, this retreat is designed for you. If you preach the Word, lead congregational song, teach the faith, write prayers, plan the church year, or simply long to create worship that is more meaningful and engaging, you belong here.

This retreat is an opportunity to step away from the week-to-week demands of ministry and gather with others who share a passion for worship. Together, we'll pray, imagine, collaborate, and plan for the seasons ahead. You'll leave with fresh ideas, practical resources, new relationships, and renewed energy for your ministry.

No matter the size of your congregation or your level of experience, your perspective matters. Every voice enriches the conversation, and every gift helps shape worship that encounters God's presence.

RETREAT LEADERSHIP

We're delighted to welcome Lisa Juica Perkins as our retreat leader. Lisa is a minister in the PCUSA and has served as pastor of Faithbridge Presbyterian Church in Frisco, TX since March 2023. Lisa is passionate about helping people discover and deepen their call to faith, meaningful, and joyful worship, and composing positive stories. She is committed to creating a church where all people are welcomed, affirmed, treated as God's faith together.

Before entering ministry, Lisa studied music before completing a degree in Pre-Med/Biology—a journey that reflects his lifelong curiosity and love of learning. Outside of church, she enjoys relaxing gardening, hiking, swimming, photography, and a great cup of coffee. She also plays the songphone, hopes to learn guitar someday, and jokes that she only runs "when she's being chased."

COST OF RETREAT

$100 per participant includes retreat materials, 2 nights single occupancy lodging, and meals from Monday dinner to Wednesday lunch. Participants must provide their own transportation to the retreat.
